Says Poland Needs $500,000,000 Credit

In commenting on the recommendation of the Secretary of the American Relief Administration, which is now practically exhausted, Poland has been able to get cotton only through the assistance of an Italian financial institution, which accepted Polish paper, discredited it in London and bought the cotton for Poland, which would get $500,000,000 under the arrangement, declared that this would only scratch the surface of the needs. One close student of the situation there asserted that $500,000,000
